Lorraine Amirault

Lorraine Amirault is a grade two French Immersion teacher at Ash Lee Jefferson school in Fall River. Lorraine comes to school everyday with a smile on her face and is always willing to share her talents. She helps other teachers without hesitation, collaborating with and supporting her colleagues. She always does her best for her students, and is the first to share their successes with anyone who will listen, developing them as learners and making them all feel special. That is why Lorraine deserves an Inspire award!
